

Learner Complaints against Recognised Centre Policy

Version: 6      Date: October 2018

Learners have the right to make complaints against British Weight Lifting or staff that work there. The procedure outlined within this policy must be followed in order for a complaint to be considered.

The Head of Centre, Zoe Kettle-Metcalf is responsible for ensuring that this policy is published, implemented and accessible to all personnel, learners and any relevant third parties. The Head of Centre will also ensure that all personnel have read and understood this policy and that any amendments to the policy are communicated to relevant parties.

Learners should be made aware of this policy at the start of their course/programme and the policy should be easily accessible (website).

Learners wishing to make a complaint against the recognised centre must do so within 14 days of the end of the course or incident. We advise learners to keep copies of all documents relating to the complaint. The following procedure should be followed by learners wishing to submit a complaint.

Note: Learners wishing to appeal against an assessment decision should follow the 'Learner Appeals against Assessment Decisions' Policy.

Complaint Submission Procedure

Learner wishes to complain about the services received from the centre. An informal complaint directly to the relevant staff member should be made in the first instance. Staff should attempt to resolve the complaint in liaison with the learner.

Learner is dissatisfied with the handling of the complaint

Learner completes the 'Learner Complaint Form' and submits this to British Weight Lifting's, Workforce Support Officer, along with any supporting evidence. This should be submitted within 14 days of the end of the course/incident.

The Workforce Support Officer must acknowledge receipt of the complaint within 10 working days and must outline the actions to be taken.

The Workforce Support Officer will investigate and evaluate the submitted evidence. Outcomes should be communicated to all relevant parties within 20 working days.

Learner is dissatisfied with the outcomes of the complaint

The Learner can escalate their complaint to the Head of Workforce at British Weight Lifting, by submitting evidence and the complaint detail so far. The Learner must state which section they are dissatisfied with.

Learner is dissatisfied with the outcomes of the complaint

The Learner can escalate the complaint to the Awarding Organisation, details can be requested from British Weight Lifting. The complaint will be handled according to the Awarding Organisation's policies.
