

Club Guide:New Club Checklist

Am I ready to start a Weight Lifting Club?	Yes	No	In progress
I have a clear vision for the club
I have planned my short, medium, and long term goals
I know there is a need for a weightlifting club in the local community
I have a space and equipment to run my club
I understand the startup costs and running costs of my club
I am able to raise the funds needed to start and maintain my club
I know how much to charge in my local community to ensure activities are affordable
I have the support to manage the club (E.g. club officers and coaches)
The club officers and coaches have the qualifications and skills needed
I know what support is available to help me develop my club (E.g. British Weight Lifting, home nation Sports Councils, local sports partnerships)
I know what Legal Status best suits the clubs needs now and in future
I am aware of the club's operational and legal obligations and have access to support to ensure my club meets these (E.g. British Weight Lifting, a solicitor, account if / when needed)
Does my new club meet British Weight Lifting's registration requirements?	Yes	No
Club name and address
Head Coach (compulsory) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> British Weight Lifting Level 2 Coach qualification or above Valid British Weight Lifting Membership Valid British Weight Lifting Coach Licence (you will be required to complete a DBS check through us once you have applied for your licence. If you have an enhanced DBS on the update service we are able to use this) Valid enhanced DBS check through British Weight Lifting
Club Safeguarding / Welfare Officer (compulsory) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Valid British Weight Lifting Membership Valid enhanced DBS check through British Weight Lifting Up-to-date Safeguarding training certified by NSPCC Child Protection in Sport Unit (CPSU). The training must be face-to-face or virtual classroom, e-learning qualifications will not be accepted
Club Secretary (recommended) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> British Weight Lifting Membership
An athlete representative (recommended) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> British Weight Lifting Membership
A Club Constitution displayed to Members			