- Address any concerns regarding missing athletes from the long-list
- Confirm agreement on which athletes meet the minimum eligibility criteria

Athletes selected for training squads are expected to demonstrate a commitment to their development, make progress on the competition platform, and exhibit behaviours aligned with these objectives. If there is evidence suggesting that an athlete is not meeting the conditions and obligations listed below, the Selection Panel and Performance Team reserve the right to investigate or assess the situation further. If, following such an investigation, the Selection Panel concludes that an athlete has failed to meet any of the conditions below, the Selection Panel, at its discretion, reserves the right to:

- Deselect the athlete
- Impose additional conditions of selection
- Request further assessment

All assessments of injury, illness, health, form, or fitness will be conducted under the guidance of suitable coaching, sports science, and/or medical personnel as designated by the BWL Head of Performance or their delegate (e.g. the designated team leader(s) for the event).

From the point of selection all athletes must consistently demonstrate, through their training and behaviour, that they are on track to achieve agreed performance targets

If any concern arising from an observation of training, testing, or otherwise indicates that an athlete is not on-track to achieve agreed performance targets, BWL will be entitled to request an assessment of the athlete's form and fitness.

It is highly likely that Weightlifters will, at some point in their careers, suffer a performance-limiting injury or illness (either physical or mental). Throughout a weightlifter's membership of a BWL training squad, rehabilitation from injury/illness will be reviewed by the BWL Sport Science & Medical personnel (working with an athlete's own external practitioners where relevant), in conjunction with the relevant coaching staff (including personal coaches where relevant). Provided a weightlifter makes every effort to adhere to their rehabilitation/prescribed treatment and follow medical advice (and does not do or fail to do anything which may jeopardise their recovery/return to performance), their programme membership (and associated support) will continue at its current level until the end of the current selection period stated above.

BWL asks all athletes to tag and thank UK Sport, The National Lottery, and BWL for their support in any social media posts during training camp periods, to acknowledge the support in funding these development opportunities.

BWL recognises that athletes may have personal sponsors who support them. We recommend that athletes contact matthew.curtain@bwl.sport to discuss potential conflicts with current or prospective partners before signing any agreements. Failure to adhere to the terms outlined in the BWL 'Athlete Agreement' regarding sponsorship could result in de-selection.

6.4 Athlete Behavioural Standards

Athletes should refer to the BWL Athlete Code of Conduct, the Athlete Agreement, and their induction pack for further guidance on expected standards of behaviour and for definitions of what constitutes 'clumsy', 'inappropriate', or 'unacceptable' behaviour.

Clumsy behaviour, defined as behaviour that is awkward or insensitive in social situations, is not abnormal or uncommon. If an athlete exhibits occasional clumsy behaviour that falls below the standards outlined in the BWL Athlete Code of Conduct or the respective 'Age-group' Athlete Charter, BWL will challenge these behaviours and initiate an informal resolution process involving all parties if necessary.

If an athlete's behaviour or actions cannot be resolved informally, or risk negatively impacting the performance or welfare of others members of the team, BWL may investigate the situation through the BWL complaints and disciplinary procedure.

Appropriate action, including deselection or formal disciplinary action, may be taken if a satisfactory resolution cannot be achieved without compromising the following:

- 6.1.1 The performance of the athlete
- 6.1.2 The performance of other individuals or the team as a whole
- 6.1.3 The reputation of BWL.
