

Tier 3 Licensed Event Terms and Conditions

Version 1.1

18 June 2019

1. General Terms

To organise a Tier 3 Licensed Event, the event organiser (EO) must pay a registration fee to British Weight Lifting (BWL) and agree to these terms and conditions.

Organisers must pay one registration fee per event.

Events can be registered up to 12 months in advance of the event date.

Organisers must deliver the event through a current Licensed Club affiliated to British Weight Lifting and hold a valid individual BWL membership both at the time the event is registered and on the date the event is delivered.

All events must:

- 1.1. Be run in accordance with BWL policies in a safe manner in compliance with appropriate guidelines regarding equipment, safeguarding and BWL TCRR.
- 1.2. Have a minimum of three Technical Officials qualified to BWL Level 2 or higher and holding a current and valid Technical Official Licence.
- 1.3. Undertake a risk assessment to be retained by the EO and submitted to BWL and the Insurers in the event of an incident or claim.
- 1.4. Receive all competition entries through BARS with no exceptions or alternative arrangements.
- 1.5. Appoint a Safeguarding Officer who is familiar with the BWL Safeguarding Policy.
- 1.6. Implement coach licence checks to ensure the BWL criteria is applied to all coaches attending.
- 1.7. Provide a point of contact and facilities for UK Anti-Doping to attend the event without notice.
- 1.8. Collaborate and cooperate with BWL to plan, promote and deliver the event using the provided template documents and marketing materials including the Tier 3 Licensed Event logo.
- 1.9. Allow BWL staff or person appointed by BWL to attend the event without notice.
- 1.10. Allow BWL to attend the event to operate a retail function for BWL goods and services.

If any of the details about the competition change you must inform competitions@britishweightlifting.org so that our insurers can be notified, and the calendar updated.

If you wish to have a copy of the BWL insurance certificate, please contact competitions@britishweightlifting.org

In the event that a competition is cancelled the event registration fee is non-refundable.

2. Licensed Events

Licensed Events must:

- 2.1. Be approved by BWL and open to receive entries at least 2 weeks prior to the date of the competition.
- 2.2. Be open to any BWL member of the correct age group and membership type, notwithstanding the use of minimum qualification standards and invitational events.
- 2.3. Be of a traditional format as defined in the current edition of the BWL Technical Rules and Regulations (TCRR); Section 2.
- 2.4. Use weightlifting equipment as defined in the current edition of the BWL TCRR; Section 3.
- 2.5. Results must be submitted to British Weight Lifting within 3 days of the event by way of email to competitions@britishweightlifting.org
- 2.6. British Weight Lifting reserves the right to reject results for any lifter or competition for matters not included in these terms and conditions.
- 2.7. British Weight Lifting reserves the right to reject all or partial results from competitions which do not meet these terms and conditions or are not run in a way deemed appropriate for them to count towards BWL rankings.

If you have any queries, or wish to have confirmation regarding your event counting towards BWL rankings, please contact British Weight Lifting on competitions@britishweightlifting.org

3. Licensed Event Organisers

- 3.1. Organisers must ensure they are aware of the latest BWL TCRR (available at www.britishweightlifting.org/competitions/rulesandregulations).
